

A movie that smears a candidate, based upon events of 30 years ago, for the sole purpose of attempting to support another candidate should never be considered a commercial. The news stories about Iraq, are factual reports about an on-going situation in our world today and impact the lives of American citizens at home and abroad.

Sinclair Broadcasting needs to be stopped